We love ragtag rebels who defeat the empire in films we watch and books we read. But living in centers of the world's wealth and power, do we recognize that we are participants in today's version of empire? Most of the Bible is written for and by people under threat or under the thumb of a variety of empires. The question faced by the children of Israel and the early followers of Jesus was how to live for the kingdom of God while powerful empires demanded full obedience. Does living with affluence and influence change the way we read and understand that story? Are we likely to miss the way the Bible critiques our use of wealth, weapons, and walls? What do Abraham, Moses, and Daniel teach us about living in the heart of the empire and reaching for something better? What can Paul teach us about using the resources of the empire to spread the message that Jesus is Lord, not Caesar? What do the birth and death of Jesus teach us about how God is redeeming the world of empires? Is our citizenship in the empire a temptation, or an opportunity?

My book is not a substitute for reading the Bible; instead, it is a teaching tool of your knowledge of the Bible. It contains Pop Quizzes (Fill in the blanks, True or False quizzes and Questions) from all sixty-six Books in the Bible. That shared, please read a Book in the King James Version of the Bible. Then, open my book and read the Pop Quizzes for that corresponding Book. For example, read the Book of Matthew. Then, read the Pop Quizzes for the Book of Matthew in my book. I have faith that you will do phenomenally well!

A fun and fascinating way to learn about the book of Revelation. The Bible's final book, Revelation, can seem intimidating or downright impossible to comprehend, even for serious students of the Scriptures. Filled with complex imagery, vivid depictions of violence, and challenging spiritual references, Revelation is often set aside by readers in favor of more straightforward, easier-to-digest biblical material. Yet the capstone of the canon need not remain a mystery. In this refreshingly accessible book, Bible scholar and best-selling author Tim LaHaye (originator of the Left Behind series) and renowned puzzle master Timothy E. Parker (editor of the USA Today Crossword, and founder of The Universal Crossword, King James Games, and Master Puzzles) demystify Revelation for your benefit. Absorb this book and discover afresh--or for the first time--the richness of Revelation and its God-breathed, life-changing power to deepen your walk of faith.

A one-volume commentary, written and edited by South Asian Biblical scholars on all the books of the Bible.

Offers perspective and guidance on how to love without fear "At the end of the day, none of us have a fairy godmother or pixie dust at our disposal. And so we must do the work ourselves."--Dr. Andrea Gurney We've all grown up watching the fairy tales that promise happily ever after with our one true love. Whether we like it or not, whether we think we believe it or not, chances are we've internalized that story of love. And despite the technology to find connection with more people than ever before, somehow we are also lonelier than ever before--even when we're in relationships. Although we were created for loving, intimate relationships, we've lost our understanding of how to find and maintain them. Andrea Gurney wants readers to discover more authentic connections that aren't made of wishes, so she equips us with practices from psychology, biblical truths, and lessons from relationship science. She also helps us examine our developmental history, including how cultural and familial messages take root in our psyches. Together, these tools craft a solid foundation on which lasting love can be built, rather than a pumpkin carriage that disappears when the clock strikes midnight. If you are disillusioned by unattainable societal standards, in need of healing from damaged relationships, or simply want to improve at relating well with others, you're ready for Reimagining Your Love Story.

The March of World Powers through history . . . Marionettes--a relationship. . . ? The author deals with the age-long and futile efforts of world powers; their terrible failure is intriguingly examined. The supposed purpose of world governments: Govern so as to produce a secure and peaceful world. The quandary: Intelligent, well-educated people govern; they are the best and wisest available--they have all failed. How is it possible? Over and over again, century after century--worse and worse failure to bring the desired peace and security. Why. . . ? That question: All types of governments have existed and passed out of existence. The question is forced upon us: if those that govern have all of the qualifications necessary to produce peace and security why do they fail? Aren't they powerful enough? It causes one to wonder; could there be some opposing forces more powerful than they are? The answer: Can historical facts show that the world's leaders are being blinded and handled as mere puppets helplessly pulled here and there, up and down, all to the tune of invisible masters high above the earthly scene? Wow! In regard to this, only a "partial reality" is being seen. In this, the author reveals a notorious deception--the "complete reality" has been hidden. Therefore, we examine and throw off, unveil a great and blinding charade. You are invited to join the author and together examine the bountiful evidence. You will consider facts, historical, scientific and biblical. Dear Fellow Researcher, personal opinions, desires, prejudice are left as unwanted outside. Marionettes--The March of World Powers
