Public Relations as Relationship Management - PR Academy

Public Relations has long aspired to be seen as a strategic management function, given the same respect in the board room as marketing and human resources. However, in 2011 US scholar James Grunig argued that rather than being seen as strategic management, 'public relations has been institutionalized as a symbolic-interpretive activity that organizations use to exert their power over publics and to disguise the consequences of their behaviors from publics, governments, and the media'.

I have quoted from a 1984 text, Managing Public Relations. Decades on, questions are still being asked about public relations as a management discipline. In their 2012 book Public Relations: A Managerial Perspective, Danny Moss and Barbara deSanto list eight key challenges facing public relations managers:
