Reflection on Luke 12: 16-21 (Parable of the Rich Fool) I just finished reading the Parable of the Rich Fool in Luke 12: 16-21. It is about a rich man whose land produced a plentiful harvest, and his response was to tear down his old barns and build larger ones to hold all of his 'treasure' for many years. In his eyes he would always be able to eat well, rest well, and be merry, but God said "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom ...
