The Atlantis Gene. By AG Riddle. Science Fiction. Review by John Richardson. When I first started to read this book I was anticipating a plot involving Atlanteans and genetics. This is exactly what you get. Tenfold. The story itself is fairly straightforward at a high level but the pace is a little too quick in parts.

~~The Atlantis Gene by A.G. Riddle | Audiobook | Audible.com~~
The Atlantis Gene makes some intriguing points about the origins of humanity, but it really reads like three books forced together to become one. It would have possibly been a better book if it had concentrated on just one or two of the three genres it tries to cram together like uneasy bedfellows: science fact, science fiction or fantasy.
