The Ladder of the Beatitudes is a spiritual exposition of the Beatitudes found in Sermon on Mount in Gospel of St Matthew. As the title implies, Forest sees the beatitudes as steps in spiritual life and each beatitude as a rung in the ladder of spiritual ascent.

~~The Ladder of the Beatitudes by Jim Forest~~

The Ladder of the Beatitudes by Jim Forest was inspired by a beautiful, sacred painting from the late 1100s entitled The Ladder of Divine Ascent. It’s a painting of monks climbing a ladder towards Jesus in Heaven, illustrating the journey of faith. The angels are cheering and praying for them in the top left corner.

The sermon on the mount has long been rightly understood as both a starting-point and a summation of Jesus' teaching. It begins with the Beatitudes (Mt. 5:3-12), in which Jesus delineates the categories of people he says enjoy special favor. The Beatitudes are all familiar to us as sayings, the best known being blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Beatitudes (Lat. beatitudo). Condition or statement of blessedness. In the Latin of the Vulgate, beatus, the word for blessed, happy, or fortunate, begins certain verses such as Psalm 1:1: "Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked." Old Testament beatitudes begin with the Hebrew word asre and the New Testament beatitudes with the Greek word makarios [].
