What Matters Now - FAQ

Asking “What matters to you?” becomes one of the fundamental questions underpinning the discussion with patients. Shared decision-making is not a one-way transmission of information about options and risks from the professional to their patient. It is a two-way relational process of helping people to reflect on, and express, their ...

Program — What Matters Now

What matters now? Given what matters now, what do you need to keep, drop, add, or delay? What non-economic projects/activities have emerged from COVID-19 and how are you accounting for them? (Self-care, family care, and additional labor due to shutdowns all count) “What matters now?” is admittedly a broad and difficult question to answer.
